"The greatest achievement was at first and for a time a dream ... Dreams are the seedlings of realities."

James Allen

"If one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours . . . If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost; that is where it should be. Now put the foundations under them."

Henry David Thoreau

"Where there is no vision, the people perish."

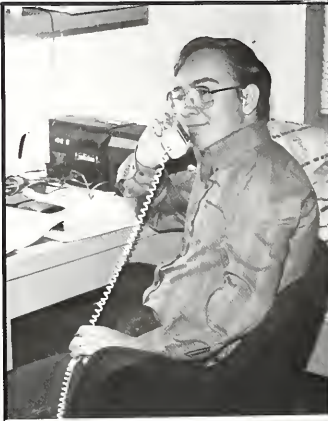

Proverbs 29:18

Our college years serve as a time for building; we set many specific life goals, knowing that with God we can achieve the highest of our dreams. Now is the time to spend laying the foundations of these dreams, the time to plan for tomorrow.

College years are also a time to look back, and realize how far the Lord has already brought us. Looking back is a part of learning for now and the future. However, we must be careful only to learn from the past and make memories of it; to simply let it be yesterday, a time already gone.

While we are planning and learning we should not forget the present. Now is the time to enjoy today — while we still have it. God has chosen to keep our knowledge of our own future from us for this very purpose. Trusting in Him, living one day at a time, not letting past or future overcome today's treasures — that is the Lord's will for our lives. "Live for today, dream for tomorrow, learn from yesterday."

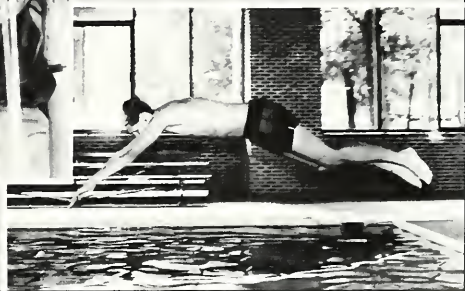

"Education means drawing forth from the mind latent powers and developing them, so that in mature years one may apply these powers not merely to success in one's occupation, but to success in the greatest of all arts — the art of living."

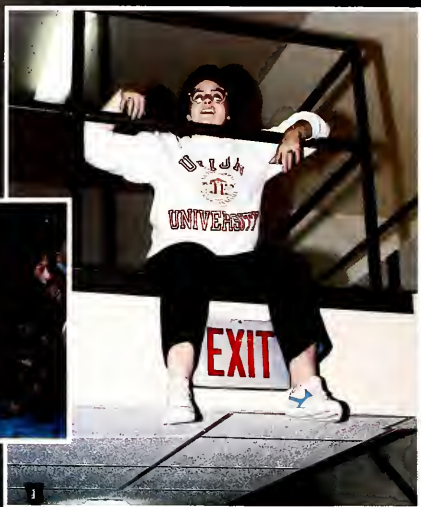

William Lyon Phelps

"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose."

Romans 8:28

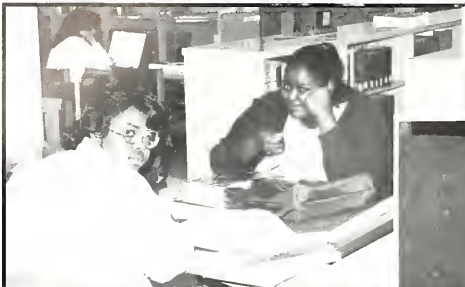

Not only does God direct in the timing of His will in our lives, but He also guides us to the place He wants us to be. He brings opportunities to us. Where we are, not just physically, but spiritually and in all other aspects of our being, plays a part in the decisions we will make. Like clay in the potter's hands, God shapes us into what He wants us to be, using our experiences and influences as tools.

As our character is built, we become an influence to those around us. More than we realize, God puts each of us where we are so that He can use us to influence other people; thus, we must be careful of the character that is built in our lives. God uses people to accomplish His will. The greatest achievement we will ever gain is to be used by God; to be in the right place, at the right time, for the right purpose.

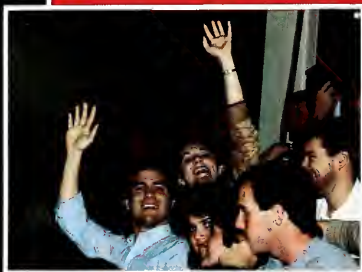

"We confidently and joyfully look forward to actually becoming all that God has had in mind for us to be."

Romans 5:2 (Living Bible)

"There is a loftier ambition than merely to stand high in the world. It is to stoop down and lift mankind a little higher."

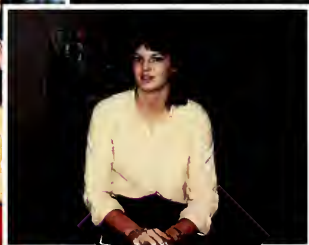

Henry Van Dyke

God has a purpose and a plan for each of us. He brings together every element and every phase of our lives to accomplish His will. Character built, goals set, and dreams achieved are all a part of that purpose. What is it? For our lives to make a difference in those around us, for others to see Christ in us.

Begin building now, here at Union; it is an institution designed for that purpose. Make a difference now, and God will make it the pattern for your life. Then your life will truly be a dream achieved.

President's Reception

One factor that makes Union such a success is the closeness of the administration and faculty with the students. One way this closeness is expressed is through the President's Reception held at the beginning of each school year. Turning the everyday cafeteria into a formal setting, the reception provides opportunity for students to talk with their professors outside of a classroom atmosphere. Union University's President, Dr. Robert Craig, and his wife greeted students as they entered, and were introduced by Student Government Association President, Chris Williams.

Talent Show

The Student Activities Council has brought many new and innovative programs to Union's campus. Among the highlights of these events this year was the Talent Show, which provided opportunity for any interested student or faculty/staff member to perform before a sell-out audience of enthusiastic students.

Good participation provided a range of categories, including everything from vocal soloists to drama to animal imitations (moo). Dr. C.C. Kinnison was master of ceremonies. Winners included Eric Barron, Kenda Ross, Chris Jacobs, and Grace Cosmiano, who was the overall winner.

Bill Morris led the revival music.

Speakers, Concerts,

Dr. Pollard led our fall revival services.

Each year Union hosts a number of speakers and several concerts. This year has again brought us an excellent fall revival evangelist, Dr. Franklin Pollard, president of Golden Gate Seminary. We also enjoyed music under the direction of Bill Morris. Many other fine speakers appeared in our chapel services.

Two major concerts were "Truth", opened by Union's own Debbie Madoni, and the Steve Camp concert.

Also, Kisber's held a fashion show on our campus, sponsored by the Student Activities Center. Sonya Pleasant, Miss Tennessee, made a guest appearance. SAC and SGA bring an assortment of entertainment to Union.

All Sing 1985

Announcements by the director, Charles Fowler.

ATO performed "For the Longest Time".

Zeta gives us "The Ol' Soft Shoe".

Celebrate Life!

When the show began, it was obvious that months of work and practice had gone into making this year's All-Sing the best yet. Each of the six competitors brought a different style of entertainment to a packed audience, capturing their awed attention from the minute they began. After individual performances, Director Charles Fowler led the combined groups in performing the theme of the '85 All-Sing: Celebrate Life. Master of ceremonies, Dr. Barney Raffield, also entertained as everyone awaited the judges decision. When the scores were finally in, Women's Housing had captured first place, with SAE following second, and Lambda Chi third. For their victory the past two years, a plaque was presented to Zeta. It was a night to remember, and one that will be hard to top next year.

Women's Housing captured first place with Buglar Boy and Precious Lord.

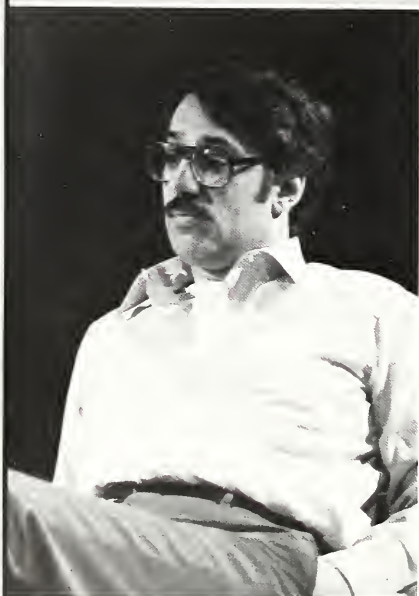

SAE secured second place with Nothin' Like a Dame and Not unto Us O Lord.

Lambda Chi won third place with Alexander's Ragtime Band and Alpha and Omega.

Theatre

A Farewell To "Doc"

By Hi. C. Luttmers

Reviews, memorabilia, news articles, letters from such luminaries as Ronald Reagan, Jimmy Stewart, and John Wayne literally papered the office walls. Doctor C.C. Kinnison reflecting his long and illustrious career as a thespian, the last four years of which have been spent as teacher and director here at Union. Last fall, "Doc" announced his retirement.

Saying he would "never retire unless I was run over by a truck or critic", Doc is simply going to take the spring off for his health (with a few weeks in Florida to boot) and then gradually work his way back into doing theater somewhere else at a much slower pace. Doctor Kinnison put on ten shows a year, a "killer pace", with "Life with Father" marking his 25th show here at Union and the 225th of his career.

Not taking singular credit for the success of Union's theater department, Doc feels he was just a director at the right place at the right time and is "amazed at the remarkable balance we maintained — our response from students, faculty, administration, community, and the critics — which seems to suggest the program was working well at every level". Claims Doc, "I've worked out at places longer and harder but never more successfully."

As Doc Kinnison left Union, he hoped "the university can maintain this level of theatrical interest, and I trust Union will remain in the forefront of the community's theatrical influence." In closing, Doc says, "Wherever I take residence in the future, my fondest thoughts will always be of Union, Union, Union." As a polished director and instructor that helped bring art and class to Union, we bid Doctor C.C. Kinnison Adieu.

Receiving awards within a university is quite an achievement, but thirty-five of our students have gone beyond that, being selected for a national honor. These seniors have been named to the 1986 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. They are selected on the basis of above average academic standing, community service, leadership ability, and potential for continued success, and were honored in a spring chapel service for such achievements.

Mr. And Miss Union '85-'86

Emily Ann Garrett, Miss Union, will receive a B.S. in Computer/Mathematics. During her successful career at Union, she has been president of her class for three years running, computer chairperson for the Student Foundation, Homecoming Queen — 1984, a member of Alpha Chi, Prexy Club, and Chi Omega, just to name a few.

Brian Buford, Mr. Union, will receive a B.S. in Psychology/English. His many accomplishments include serving as BSU President and editor of The Torch. A fine actor, he has been awarded the Best Actor "Tony" for his many performances at Union. He has also been a member of the Prexy Club and the Honors Student Association.

Homecoming '85

Union University's men's basketball team capped our Homecoming celebration with a convincing win over Harris Stowe, the only appropriate follow up for the Lady Bulldog's smashing success over Blue Mountain.

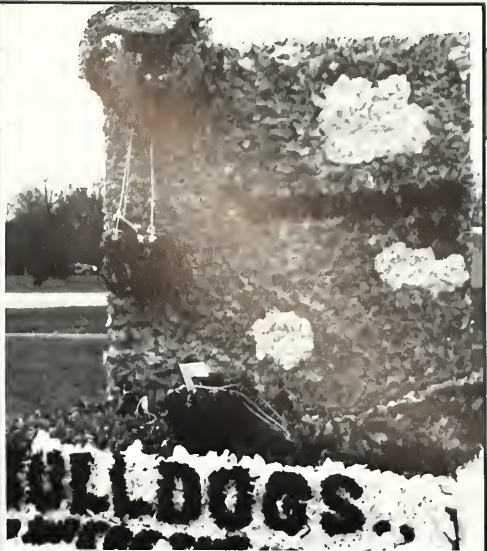

Lynnette Shelley, a senior Communications major from Dyersburg, TN, was crowned the 1985 Homecoming Queen.

Around the world in a day, through a maze of spirited games — the shoe race, dizzy lizzy, pizza devouring, hamburger eating, and chin toss — Union's classes were sure to arrive at Homecoming Day fully psyched for the great event. Leading the competition, the Junior Class displayed unequalled energy and came out on top.

Sophomore class won first place in the classes division.

SAE won first place in the Greek division.

Charles Fowler, Producer

Sandra Skinner, Director

On April 5, Beth Gay, our 1985 Miss Union, crowned a new pageant winner, culminating the events of a truly enchanting evening. Such an outstanding performance owes credit to a talented producer, Charles Fowler, an enthusiastic director, Sandra Skinner, and two of the best assistants, Caroline Bobbitt and Butch Powers. Not only did the contestants entertain, but the Pageant Singers captured the audience with an outstanding performance of various Rodgers and Hammerstein productions. An enchanted evening indeed.

Reach Out And Touch?

And Jesus came and spoke unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen

— Matthew 28:18-20

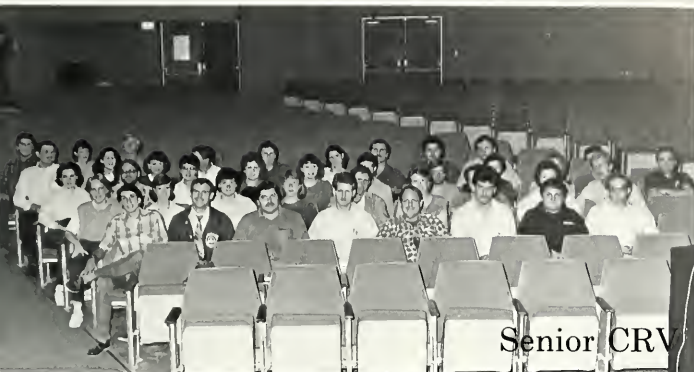

The Baptist Student Union is an organization for everyone on campus, an opportunity to obey Christ in service and to share in fellowship with those who love Him.

It is a tool in that it offers interested students a chance to minister to others and to discover their God given gifts and abilities through participation in its different ministries: Backyard Bible Club; Nursing Home; Wilder Youth Development Center; Majesty Ensemble; Sunshine Puppets; and Impact, the drama team. Other possibilities are found in Revival Team work, S.P.O.T.S. Teams (Special Projects Other Than Summer), and Summer Missions. The BSU ministries worked together this year to raise 25,000 dollars for Summer Missions.

Fellowship is also an important part of BSU. Sharing together at weekly meetings, exercising talents at frequent coffee houses, working and playing — those who take part truly sharpen one another's faith and understanding "as iron sharpens iron."

So, through the blessings of God's command to "Go" this year's BSU fulfills its theme "Reach Out and Touch."

Church Related Vocations

Church Related Vocations is a practical part of the lives of most ministry students.

CRV is an in-service guidance program for students who feel they have been called into full-time service. These students may be future pastors, missionaries, youth workers, counselors, and more.

It is the goal of CRV to help such students to examine their call, obtain experience and instruction in their chosen fields, and to gain insight into the biblical nature, mission, life, and work of the local church in today's world.

CRV is also a channel for financial assistance to students dedicated to full-time service. Financial aid funds are set aside by Union in cooperation with the Tennessee Baptist Convention and allocated through the office of Religious Affairs and CRV.

Baptist Young Women

Baptist Young Women is an organization committed to the support of missions at home and abroad. Young ladies interested in this important work will find themselves praying for the needs of specific missionaries at bi-monthly meetings, organizing toy drives, raising mission funds, and publicizing annual mission offerings such as the Lottie Moon Offering. A special prayer retreat was held this fall at Birdsong Resort and a spring banquet highlights the end of each year's work.

Black Christian Fellowship

Black Christian Fellowship is an exciting part of Union's religious activities. By sponsoring Fall and Spring concerts which feature a variety of groups and styles, this organization has given Union's campus extra life. The central purpose of BCF is to provide black students an opportunity to meet and find fellowship together in Christ; however, weekly meetings are open to all students regardless of race and are well attended. Beyond regular meetings, the group enjoys events such as planned picnics for relaxation and the special activities of Black History Month.

Union men preparing for ministerial or pastoral positions find spiritual support and fellowship within the Ministerial Association. Following Christ's example of concern, this year's group sponsored a Car Bash for world hunger. They were also given instruction to aid them in their future work. On one occasion an Interfaith speaker of the Southern Baptist Convention conveyed effective ways of dealing with members of various cults. Each Spring brings the association together for a private observance of the Passover, honoring Christ Jesus and recreating the closeness shared by our Lord and His disciples at the Last Supper.

Fellowship Of Christian Athletes

Union's Fellowship of Christian Athletes is an organization devoted to the type of personal ministry Jesus exemplified. Choosing devotional topics to meet immediate needs — such as "Frustration" during finals week — and sharing personal problems and prayers are an essential part of weekly meetings. Led by sponsor Ron Barry, the group also helps with campus concerts, works closely with the BSU, and provides a spring chapel program.

Physical Education Majors Club

Union's Physical Education Majors Club is an information organization designed to keep physical education majors and minors abreast of the job opportunities available to them in surrounding areas. The group is sponsored by Mrs. Sandra Morgan.

Women's Dorm Council

Working hard to bring a better mode of living to on-campus students is the Women's Dorm Council. This group provides communication between administration and students concerning housing matters. Recent accomplishments include a new large screen television and new lights to study by in the women's commons.

The Student Voice

Freedom of speech is one of the basic rights upon which our United States was founded; it is a necessity to our inalienable human rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Here at Union this proud tradition is carried on through fair representation in the Student Senate. The Senate is the student voice to Union's administration. Bills are written according to the needs and desires of the student body and reviewed carefully; if passed by the Senate, they are taken up for consideration by the administration.

This year's Senate has been particularly effective — Union now has an approved constitution and by-laws, a goal sought after since 1978. This achievement will give students a certainty of their rights and a clearer picture as to the successful use of Student Government.

Chuck Sikler, S.G.A. Vice President, finds a moment of rest in his busy day.

S.G.A. Officers, seated: Chuck Sikler, vice president; Chris Williams, president; standing: Sandra Skinner, treasurer; Drew Gay, attorney general; Becky Ray, secretary.

Where People Are . . .

Where people are so there is change. The Student Government Association consists of the organized student body led by elected officers. Its purpose is to deal with and to bring about change in acceptable ways, as well as to provide activities for students.

The officers are essential in communicating the needs of the student body to the faculty, staff, and administration; planning activities such as concerts and movies; and organizing the student body for action. Of course, they are an important part of Senate work.

Through class meetings and general sessions held regularly, S.G.A. is able to plan Union's biggest events. Homecoming is an example of S.G.A. in motion, electing a queen and court, building class displays for competition, and planning festivities for all.

The Student Government Association is an avenue of awareness, activity, and change.

Student Foundation

One of the university's most vital public relations tools is the Student Foundation. Made up of students chosen for scholarship, leadership, and character, this organization draws prospective students to Union by speaking in high schools and junior colleges, writing letters, and conducting tours of the campus. This group also creates a feeling of goodwill between Union and the surrounding community as members visit local churches and clubs.

Their correspondence with alumni is another important contribution. One might say that the foundations first priority is to extend Union's hand of hospitality.

Speech And Debate Team

Staying in character, maintaining good eye contact, and thinking on your feet are just a few of the skills to be mastered by Speech and Debate Team members. Combining these skills with so many more technical necessities to a fine performance is the object of team meetings. Because the work involves much time and repetition, the group meets three times each week for practice and evaluation.

Hard work does pay off. In competition at Tennessee Temple this year, Union's team placed in both poetry and informative speaking. Other events included dramatic, persuasive, and impromptu speaking, as well as rhetorical criticism.

The Speech and Debate Team is a new and growing organization fueled by dedication and an attitude of professionalism. No detail can be overlooked. As one member points out, "Competition begins as soon as we get out of the van."

At The Top

You'll find all kinds here. Alpha Chi is a national honor society open to students in every field of study who find themselves in the top ten percent of the junior and senior class.

The running theme of this organization is academic excellence. Members meet several times a semester to be introduced to campus opportunities for achievement. The Speech Team was highlighted at one of this year's fall gatherings. After each performance, Dr.

Pinson, Alpha Chi sponsor, explained the judging criteria for speech competitions.

Such meetings are helpful in "promoting and recognizing scholarship as a developer of character and citizenship among undergraduate students."

Much To Offer

Implications of the Vietnam War, Stone Hinge, Surrealism, legends concerning King Arthur, Poland, primitive man, the abortion issue ... And so the list goes on — all are fair topics for members of the Honors Student Association.

This organization is designed to allow students involved in interdisciplinary study classes a chance to socialize with one another, work together in sponsoring campus events, and take part in forums and conferences of other regional honors associations.

Knowing that experience is a good road to understanding, one upper level honors class spent a weekend living in the style of the early American Indian. The group traveled to Kampsville, Illinois, to meet John White, archaeologist, who has there endeavored to recreate a lost way of life. One rainy night was spent sleeping under the thatched roof of a hut, and the next in a cave. This second night the students were treated to ancient Indian stories compliments of their host, who surprised them by appearing in costume for the occasion.

The Honors Student Association has much to offer.

Footlights And Alpha Psi Omega

For those students who strive to further the arts of dramatics, and play production, there is Footlights. Candidates are selected through participation in Union's theater productions and are encouraged to continue to foster an appreciation for dramatic performance long after graduation. Those serving as officers this year are: Leanne Lockman, president; Chris Hamilton, vice-president; Kirsten Eddings, secretary.

Working with Footlights to promote theatrical interest is Alpha Psi Omega, a national honorary fraternity, whose officers include: John Longworth, president; Sandra Skinner, vice-president; Roger Davis, secretary.

Kappa Pi

Those students who are talented and seriously interested in art could well become involved with Kappa Pi, an organization which as its goal strives to raise the standards of art among students. As senior members of this organization, artists find an outlet for their collected works in Union's own Art Gallery.

Cardinal And Cream

A good newspaper seeks to inform, entertain, and sharpen its readership. Through a careful compilation of organizational news, features, devotional literature, editorial opinion, letters to the editor, cartoons, movie and book reviews; the Cardinal and Cream attempts to satisfy the total person.

A student publication produced once a month, this newspaper provides a field of experience for the Journalism 213-214 class which serves as a reporting staff. Editors learn the news business in detail, and volunteer contributors add special flair to the work.

This year's newspaper staff made a concerted effort toward greater variety and more attractive design.

Members of Union's Student Publications Staff joined ranks this Halloween to initiate their new advisor, Dr. Kenneth Jordan, with a friendly prank.

Lest We Forget

Take all the swift advantage of hours.

— Shakespeare

Surley Shakespeare, saying these words, envisioned Union's Lest We Forget staff as they raced to meet deadlines in the face of scheduled-and-rescheduled pictures, mountains of copy, and all the inherently fragmented work of making memories last forever.

This year's staff felt the challenge and excitement of working under a new advisor and yearbook company. The group enjoyed a trip to Clarksville, Tennessee to tour the new company's plant and special workshops held on Unions campus to aid in adjustments and acquire new ideas on layout and design.

Working on Student Publications as a social organization, the staff of both yearbook and newspaper gathered to watch "Halloween, Part 1", before redecorating the office of Dr. Jordan, publications advisor. Displaying his gratitude for their efforts in this area, Dr. Jordan hosted a Christmas party in his home — a much appreciated pause for talk and relaxation prior to the final run. Upon completion of the yearbook a special celebration was held, symbolizing many heartfelt thanks to all those who worked so hard.

Andrew T. "Tip" Taylor Pre-Legal Society

As our world daily becomes more complicated the law profession must change and grow to meet our needs and to protect our rights. The Andrew T. 'Tip' Taylor Pre-Legal Society was formed to give interested students a view of the various opportunities opening up within the profession, a glance into the rigors of life at law school, and a good idea of the kind of preparation they might need on the undergraduate level. These insights come through the communicated experiences of local lawyers. Ivy Scarbrough, a prominent Jackson attorney, was guest speaker at the organization's first meeting this year, where he talked informally with members. It is hoped that the Society will help students to better define their career goals.

Greek Councils

Panhellenic Council is a body of delegates representing the sororities on Union's campus. An extension of the National Panhellenic Conference, Panhellenic sets the rush rules, provides information to rushees during rush, and establishes quota. Consisting of three representatives from each sorority, the council also coordinates activities for sorority women.

The Inter-fraternity Council is made up of two members from each of the three fraternities on Union's campus. This council is a body in which all three fraternities have common ground. Its objectives are to promote unity between the fraternities, enforce rush rules, and help to introduce the Greek social fraternities to incoming students at Union.

Lady Bulldogs Keep Up Their Winning Ways

After a 31-2 season and a number four national ranking, this year's Lady Bulldogs had a tough act to follow. With the help from three returning starters and a good recruiting campaign, Coach Blackstock continued the successful tradition this year.

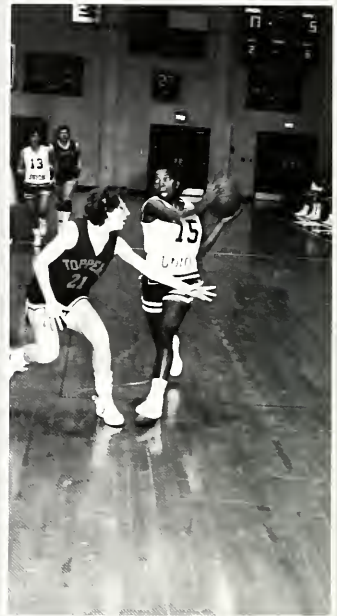

Returning this year is senior captain Kelley Worner, juniors Jackie Graham and Mary Marable, and sophomore Charlotte Hart. This year's newcomers are Missouri Junior College transfer Mary Ann Drake, freshmen Becky Hansman, Shea Piercey, Lorrie Edmundson and Elizabeth Peek, and sophomore walk-on Delena Collomp.

The Lady Bulldogs began their winning season with a fourth place victory in the Plainview Queens Classic in Texas. This event featured a number of last year's national top ten teams.

In addition to Coach David Blackstock, the Lady Bulldogs have returning assistant coach Ron Barry and student assistant coaches Vicky Swindell and Floyd Rowe.

New Season New Outlook

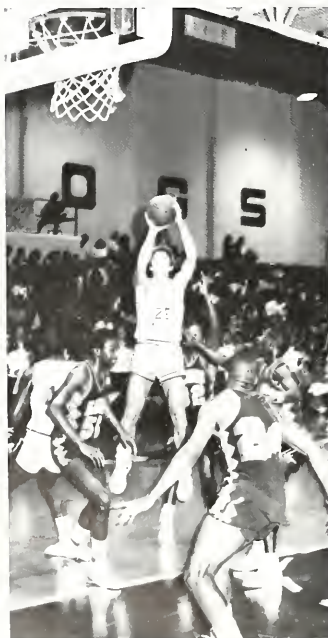

With only five players returning from the 1985-1986 Bulldog team, Coach Swope had his work cut out for him. A great recruiting year brought success to the season making it one of the best in recent Union history.

The two senior starters, James "Clev" Harris and Marty Stubblefield, returned for their last season. Other returning players were sophomores David Barham, Stevie Howard, and Scott Stone. New faces on the court included Northeast Mississippi Junior College transfers Roosevelt Combs and Calvin Fields, freshmen Rick Rudesill, James Fields, and David Kizer. Transfers Steve Jett from Southern Mississippi University and Willie Holland from Murray State University were eligible after Christmas. Also making up the squad were redshirts Brent Martin and Mike Humphries.

The Bulldogs began their successful season with a second place finish at the Missouri Baptist Tournament in St. Louis. Their continued winnings were highlighted by the championship of the Exchange Club Tournament over Freed Hardeman.

Bulldog Baseball The Tradition Continues

1985 was another banner year for the Union University Bulldogs. Coaches David Blackstock and Linn Stranak led the team to a 39-11 record, including a #13 NAIA District 24 Championship. The Bulldogs posted a 22-4 district mark and then took on the district tournament in Nashville without defeat, dominating their opponents 31-10 in the process.

Winning all seven games, the Bulldogs claimed a record fifth straight title in the Christian College Tournament in Cocoa Beach, Florida. Union finished third in the NAIA Area 5 tournament.

The 1986 season brings about new leadership under Coach Bill Green. Green brings with him a record of several successful coaching seasons with Trevecca Nazarene College and Hendersonville Beech High School, plus several honors, including two-time VSAC Coach of the Year and four-time VSAC West Coach of the Year.

Bulldogs In Top Swinging Form

The Union Men's Tennis Team had a successful year in 1985. Under the direction of Coach Ron Barry, the team tied the record for the most wins, a total of 19. The highlight of the season was the Bulldog's sweeping victorious trip to Kissimmee, Florida with 8 consecutive wins, including such teams as Iona and the University of Delaware. Returning player Gunnar Aldaberth was named MVP for the 1985 season.

Along with the loss of three seniors, the 1986 squad gained the talent of two new players: Imran Syed from Canada, and Robert Johnson from South Africa. Senior Dusty Doddridge is captain of the team.

With only two returning seeded players, the 1986 Union Women's Tennis Team has its work cut out for them. But with the addition of several new players, Coach Sandra Morgan's outlook is optimistic. The formation of the T.C.A.C. will have no effect on the success that the women's tennis team has accomplished in recent years. Senior Mary Anne Stephenson will again vie for a third trip to the national finals. The other new players will also try to establish themselves in the conference.

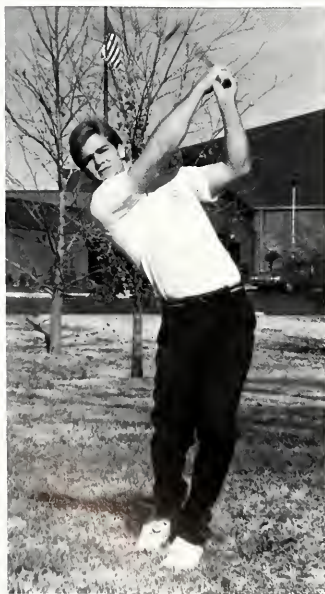

Union Linksters

1985 was a top season for the men's golf team. Continuing their winning ways, the Linksters captured first place at the Tennessee Intercollegiate Tournament in Sewanee, Tennessee. Jeff Copeland and Clay Lindsey also made the All-State Team. This past fall the Bulldogs finished tenth in the Tri-State Classic, which consisted of some of Division I and II's best.

Coach Don Morris, named 1985 V.S.A.C. Coach of the Year, returns several key lettermen along with several new players. The talent possessed by these Linksters should enable them to add yet another successful season to their winning tradition.

Go Bulldogs!

More than most people realize, cheerleading is an integral part of Union's basketball season. This year's squad consisted of twelve talented and spirited men and women. Along with the help of Buster the Bulldog, alias Tim Corley, the cheerleaders built enthusiasm for our team by bringing the fans to their feet.

The Cheerleaders, sponsored by Mrs. Luanne Powell, admissions counselor, were awarded a fourth place trophy in their divisions at the Universal Cheerleading Camp at Memphis State.

Amateurs In Action!

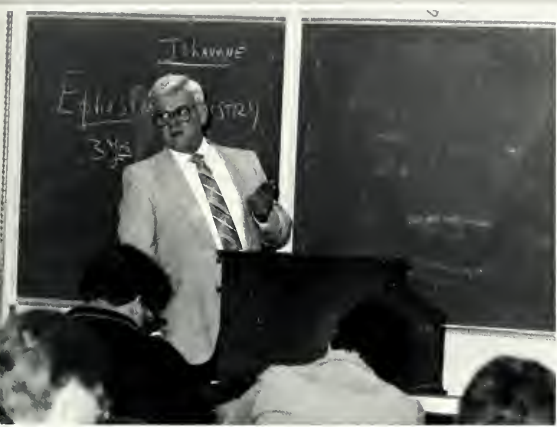

Union offers a wide range of intramural activities for students, as well as faculty members, who do not play varsity sports. These activities allow students to participate in team and individual sports, including football, cross country running, ping-pong and pool tournaments, swimming, volleyball, basketball, softball, track and field, bowling and tennis. A grand champion organization is named at the end of the year based on scores kept from each sports event.

President Craig

... he is one of the most humble and greatest Christians I have ever known ...

Mrs. Craig

As you walk down the hall you may see a distinguished looking man in a suit moving quietly along. He'll greet you with a warm smile and a glad word. One gets the impression that he is a man of respectability. Yet, he is a very personable individual. His true commitment to Union and dedication to the students have given us all something for which to be thankful. Since Dr. Craig joined Union he has led us through some exciting and challenging eras.

Dr. Craig has another interesting side to him — his family life. He really enjoys working in the garden and just being outside. He loves the outdoors. He has a dog that is a good friend and, believe it or not, chickens also share the president's company. Yes, Dr. Craig raises chickens as well. Mrs. Craig told the yearbook staff that her husband has been aggravated by his family for times past. When he was a small boy he had a pair of red boots, which he wore all the time and even had a special place for them. As far as he was concerned they were his sole property. Dr. Craig even had Union pride then!

His wife was asked to sum him up in one sentence and she said, "he is one of the most humble and greatest Christians I have ever known." — those who know him will agree.

Dear Alma Mater, hear thy off-spring's plighted vow!
 Firmer and truer may we be than now
 Memory fondly lingers,
 Calling back departed days,
 Every task grown lighter
 As we sing thy praise.
 Union, dearest Union,
 Yes, we'll sing thy spreading
 fame!
 Union, dearest Union,
 Honored be thy name.
 O Alma Mater, our affections
 cling to thee,
 Faithful and loyal may we ever be
 May our Master's watch-care
 O'er us one and all extend,
 Till again in Union
 Heart and voice we blend.
 Union, dearest Union,
 Yes, we'll sing thy spreading
 fame!
 Union, dearest Union,
 Honored be thy name.

The End Upon Which

The Beginning Is Built

Graduation 1985

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

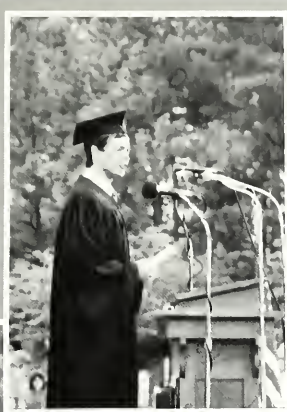

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I —
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

— Robert Frost

A black and white photograph of a snowy landscape. In the foreground, a smooth, white snow-covered field stretches across the frame. In the middle ground, a line of trees is visible, some with bare branches and others with dark, dense foliage. The background is a pale, overcast sky. The overall mood is quiet and serene.

*Take time to think — it is the source of power.
Take time to read —
it is the foundation of wisdom.
Take time to play —
it is the secret of staying young.
Take time to be quiet —
it is the moment to seek God.
Take time to be aware —
it is the opportunity to help others.*

*Take time to love and be loved — it is God's greatest gift.
Take time to laugh —
it is the music of the soul.
Take time to be friendly —
it is the road to happiness.
Take time to dream —
it is what the future is made of.
Take time to pray —
it is the greatest power on earth.*

Well, we've turned another year into a memory. It's been quite a challenge to try to compact a whole year full of learning and excitement into one book, and to capture the spirit of a student body as unique as Union's. Realizing that, our yearbook staff committed themselves to doing their best to preserve this year. I want to thank them all for their hard work; they made this memory possible.

Special thanks goes to Jennifer Harbin for giving a 200% effort all the time, and for coming up with new ideas when it seemed there were none left. Also, thanks goes to Scott and Julian for letting us make a camera an almost permanent attachment to their hands! We are all so grateful to Dr. Jordan for putting up with us and giving constant encouragement. Thanks is also due to our Josten's representative, Johnny Cole, who went beyond just doing his job to make sure we made this book the best possible.

Above all, I thank the Lord for ultimate guidance and strength to accomplish this task. Just as Union University became a reality to bring glory to God, so I hope and pray that this book, which is a reflection of Union, will also bring praise to our Lord. He has given us our dreams, and they begin now. Let's always make a special memory of them — lest we forget — Great is our Lord.
